

Eva is 15. She has recently moved to your area as her parents have separated and has few friends. She displays sexualised behaviour and openly flirts with all the boys. You have heard rumours that all the girls think she is "slag" and don't like her because she is always boasting about all the boyfriends she had where she lived previously. She is taken advantage of by many of the older boys who know that she will have sex with them if they pay her attention

Sam is 16 he is a bright young man who attends the local grammar school. He is in a sexual relationship with his current girlfriend who he has been seeing for one year and she is on the pill. Sam's parents are very religious and would strongly disapprove of their sexual relationship. Sam spends a lot of time at home on his own as his parents are both lawyers in London. They do however put a large amount of pressure on him to get good G.C.S.E grades. Sam has been recently using a lot of alcohol and legal highs to help him cope

Steph has been in care since she was 4 years old. She has regular contact with her mum who is drug and alcohol dependent. Steph's mum has just moved in with her violent partner who has said that he does not want Steph visiting his house. She is now late for her contraceptive injection but she says that she is not bothered as she wants to have a baby. She has been with her current boyfriend for three months this is longer than any previous relationship she states they both love each other a lot therefore a baby will not be a problem. Steph is 14 and her boyfriend is 16 he is not aware that she is no longer using contraception

Tom is 15 he is a bit of a loner and the son of a farmer who was in his 60's when he had Tom. They live in a rural isolated area and since the death of Tom's mum 4 years ago he has not been to school much as has had to help his Dad on the farm and help look after his two younger sisters. The only information Tom has ever received regarding relationships and sex is from his 11 year old cousin and some magazines that he found of his Dads. Tom would never feel comfortable in talking to his dad about such matters. Tom occasionally goes to the local youth club and has recently met a girl there who has a mild learning disability their relationship has recently become very close

Ajay is a 16 year old girl born in the UK of Indian parents. Her parents still conform to their strict culture and religion Ajay's western friends are very much frowned upon by her parents as they recently saw them out drunk. Ajay enjoys going out with her friends but is finding it increasingly more difficult to balance the two lifestyles. Ajay has recently met an English boy who she really likes. They have discussed having sex and contraception and although Ajay would really like this to happen she is afraid that her parents, who are local G.P's will find out if she visits the contraceptive clinic

Will went to a friend's birthday party at the weekend. During the evening a girl who he vaguely knew from school was openly flirting with him all night. She was very drunk and at the end of the night they had sex. The girls in question parents have since found out about this and are threatening to go to the police and she maintains that she never actually wanted sex and that Will raped her. Will said that all his friends have said that this cannot be so as although she was drunk she willingly went upstairs and that had provided a condom for them to use

George has recently been dumped by his girlfriend of two years. She was his first sexual partner. He was really upset about the break up but now feels that he has some "catching up" to do. He is very popular amongst the girls and has recently been going out and having unprotected sex with lots of girls he says he doesn't need to use condoms as he can judge how clean they are by what they are wearing and besides if he catches anything he can get it sorted out at the clinic

Dan is 16 he has always been bullied at school. He has always lived with his grandparents who recently have become concerned as he is becoming more and more isolated and spends all his time in his room on the internet.

Dan has been questioning his sexuality but is not sure who he can talk to. He has recently been visiting gay porn sites and chat lines. His grandmother accidentally found this out. She has decided to ignore this as she feels that it is just a phase that he is going through and that it would upset his grandfather if he found out as he has just been diagnosed with a bad heart

Meg is 17 she has always had a poor relationship with her parents she has always felt that she is the odd one out and her parents are much more interested in her sister who achieves well at school and isn't into boys and going out. You have recently heard that Meg has left home and is staying at the flat of a much older man. You know this man has a reputation for dealing drugs in the community and are concerned that Meg is being pressurized into taking risks because she feels she has nowhere else to go

Jake is just 13 and the youngest in his year group. He has recently started at a new senior school and is keen to make a good impression amongst his peers. Jake has recently been caught smoking and his teachers have reported he "is hanging around with the wrong crowd of older boys". He says his new friends are "cool" and that although he knows that they smoke cannabis and drink alcohol and he says would never do this but sees nothing wrong with the way that they behave.

Soraya is seeing a boy of 19. She is 14 and says that age doesn't matter. Soraya also says that boys her own age are immature and she has always got on with boys that are older than her. Her boyfriend regularly picks her up from school in his car. You are aware that the boy concerned has been banned from driving and does not have a driving licence. Her mum has met her boyfriend and thinks he is nice. She went with Soraya to the clinic and put her on the pill when she was 13 as she was a teenage mother herself and doesn't want the same thing to happen to her daughter.

Ben is 16 and has just left school his friends are planning their first holiday alone to Magaluf. Ben is still a virgin and although he is secretly proud of this his friends constantly tease him. He is now really worried as all his mates have said that they are going to get him drunk whilst they are away and find him a girl to "loose it to" Ben has gone along with this pretending he is up for this and cant wait for it to happen but he is terrified and wants his first time to be special. He has thought about pulling out of the trip but will loose his hard earned deposit so sees no option than to go along with their plan

Emma is 15 and has found out she is pregnant. Emma's boyfriend Matt has said that the baby is not his and wants nothing to do with her. Emma did have unprotected sex with one other boy whilst with Matt. Emma's older sister has just had a miscarriage after trying for a baby for three years and the family are devastated. Emma feels that although she doesn't want a baby she cannot have an abortion because of her sister. Emma is now about 12 weeks pregnant and doesn't know what to do. Apart from Matt she hasn't told anyone about this